

*We, are going to make a potion that will bubble,
It will scare the people and cause some trouble.*

Just add a bloody heart and a quivering snail,

Add a mouse's leg and a cheetah's tail.

Put in a nail and the leg of a young deer,

Pour in bird's blood and a in bunny fear.

A slimy slug on a slimy log,

Slice up a reed that grew by a bog.

A poisonous frog's dart and a pig's vein,

A dog's eye and a newt's brain.

So boil it up and make some trouble,

Boil it up and make it bubble.
