

Art Knowledge Organiser - Year 2 Printing

Famous artist!

William Morris was famous for repeating pattern wallpaper and furniture prints. You can still buy them today and they're expensive!

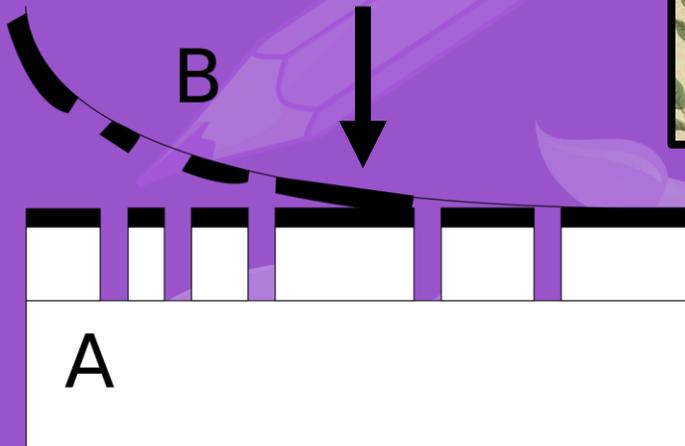

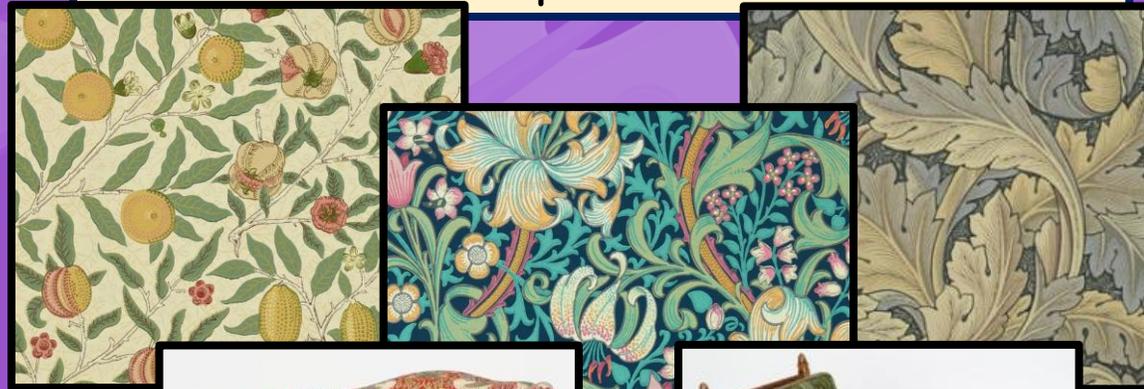

William Morris
1834-1896

British textile designer

Based most patterns on nature

Relief printing
Press down
vertically

Key Vocabulary: print, designer, repeating pattern, relief print, stamp

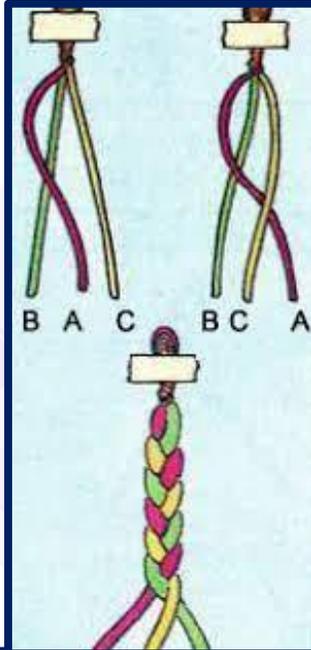

Kente cloth fabric made of interwoven cloth strips and is native to the Akan tribe in Ghana.

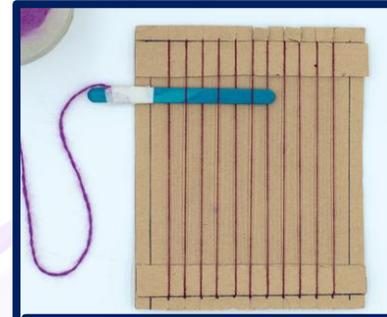

African textiles!

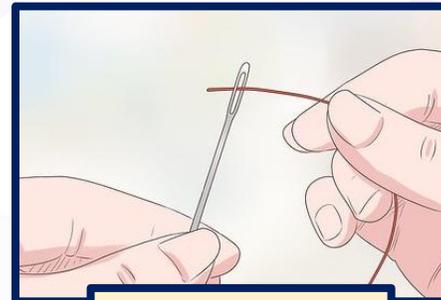

Materials come from

Plaiting (outside to the middle)

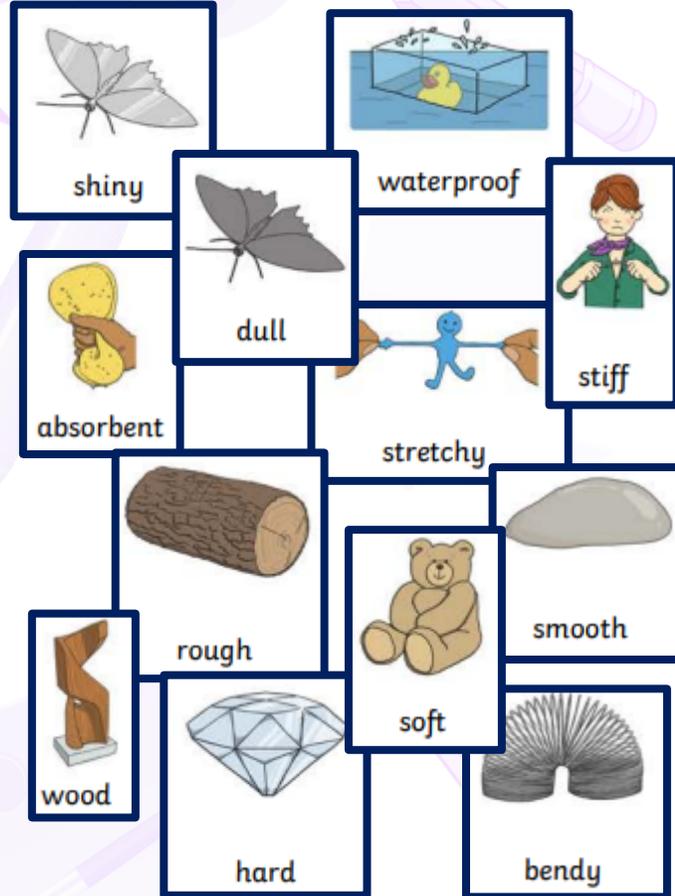

Weaving (under, over)

Threading a needle

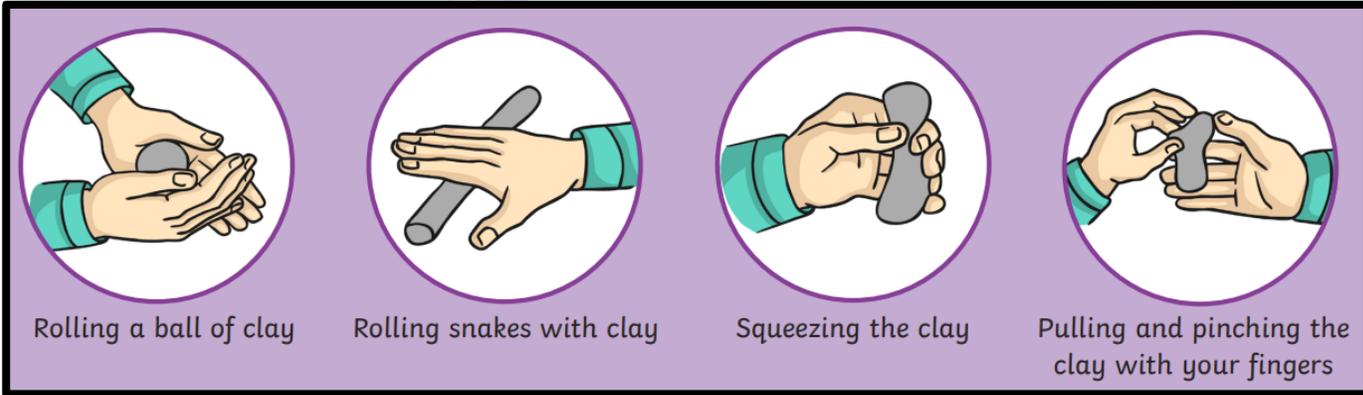

Properties of materials

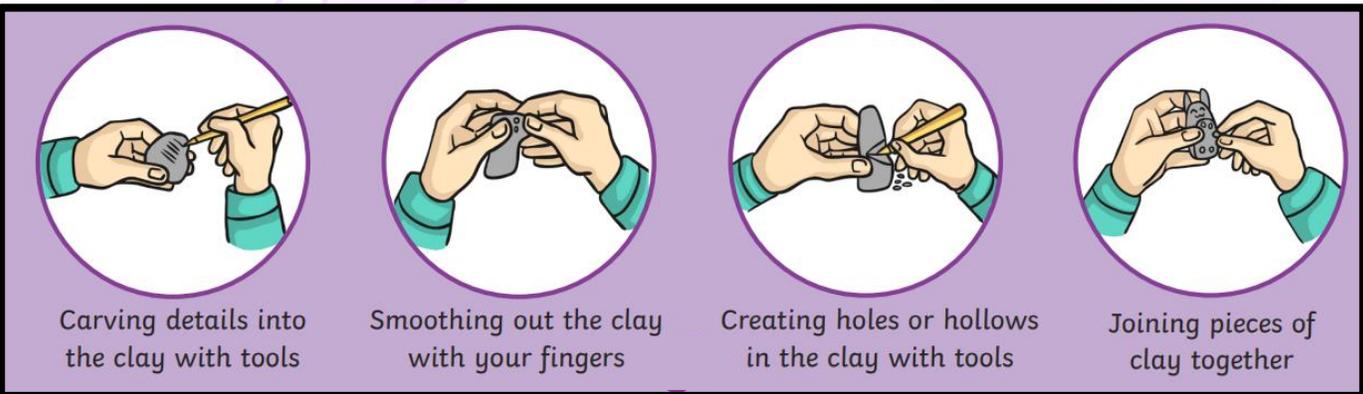

Key Vocabulary: properties, plait, weave, natural, needle, thread, man-made, material, texture, embellish, Kente cloth

Art Knowledge Organiser - Year 2 Clay

Rolling a ball of clay Rolling snakes with clay Squeezing the clay Pulling and pinching the clay with your fingers

Carving details into the clay with tools Smoothing out the clay with your fingers Creating holes or hollows in the clay with tools Joining pieces of clay together

Clay dries hard

Clay slip is like a clay glue

Chris Ryniak
1976-

American sculptor

Sculps and paints
bizarre 'critters'

Key Vocabulary: roll, cutting, squeeze, pinch, carve, push, pull, smooth, shape, form, model, carve, clay slip, join