

IF YOU CAN READ THIS, THANK A TEACHER

— AND —

IF YOU CAN READ
THIS YOU PROBABLY ARE A TEACHER

7H15 M3554G3
53RV35 70 PROV3
HOW OUR M1ND5 C4N
DO 4M4Z1NG 7H1NG5!
1MPR3551V3 7H1NG3!
1N 7H3 B3G1NN1NG
17 WA5 H4RD BU7
YOUR M1ND 1S
R34D1NG 17
4U70M471C4LLY
W17H 0U7 3V3N
7H1NK1NG 4B0U7 17,
B3 PROUD! ONLY
C3R741N P39PL3 C4N
R3AD 7H15.

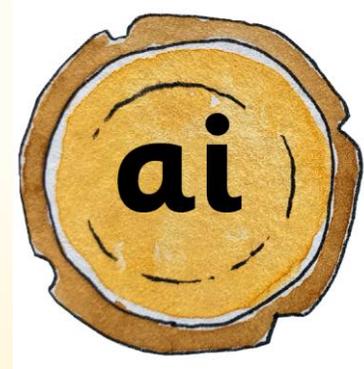

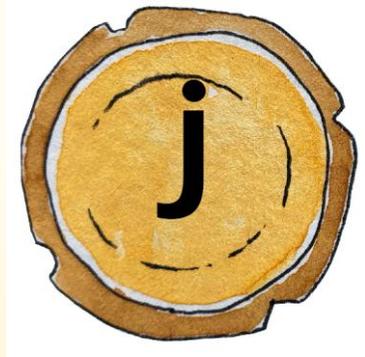

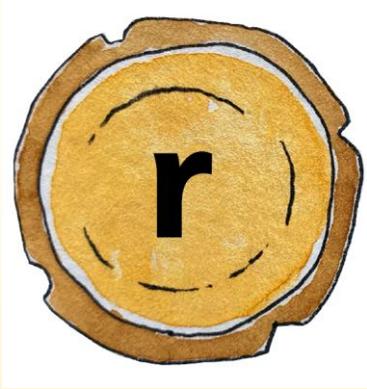

Discuss:

What is the difference between a phoneme and a grapheme?

What is a digraph?

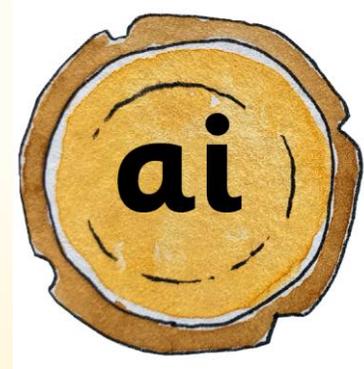

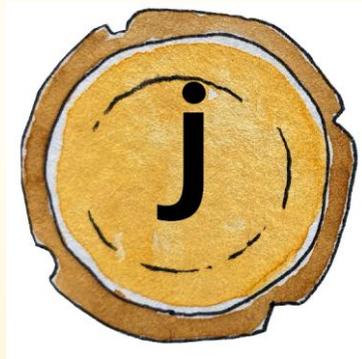

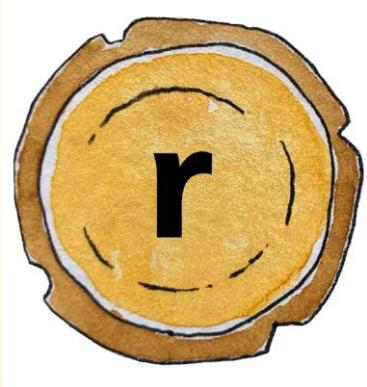

What is a trigraph?

What phoneme do these graphemes make?

Which phase does each one belong too? phase 2? Phase 3? Or Phase 5?
What is phase 4?

Visual Phonics?

A link to our Visual Phonics can be found on our website.

Resources - sound mats - phase 2

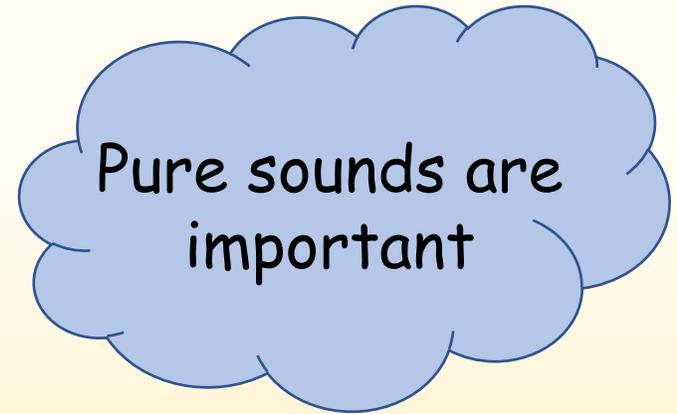

Phase 2

sat

mud

cog

Resources - sound mats - phase 3

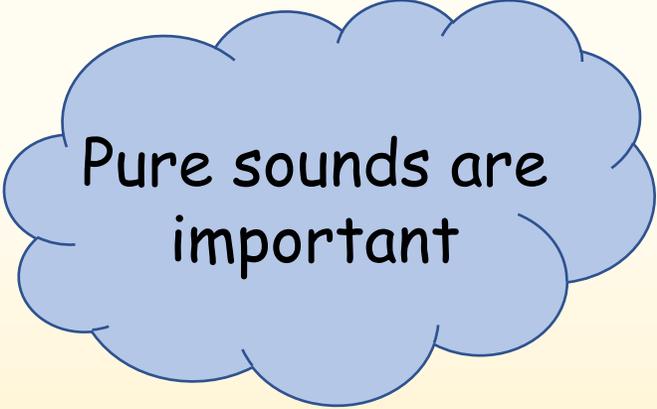

Phase 3

turn

fang

church

flight

Pure sounds are important

Resources - sound mats - no pictures

Resources - sound mats - Phase 5

Resources - sound mats - Phase 5

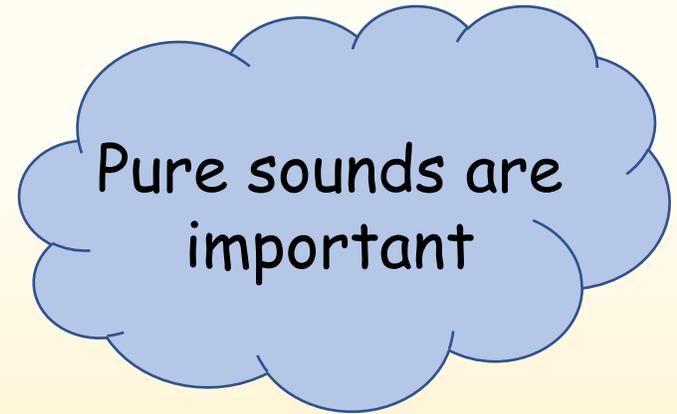

Phase 5

bridge

play

phone

glue

What does a lesson look like?

More information can be found on our website.

Year 1 Common Exception Words a

I
to no
go the
of

has his is push pull full ask put one

do so you
was they he be she me we are by my said were here

there where some come

our today
says
your love
friend
school house
once

supersonic
Phonic Friends

Year 2 Common Exception Words

most only both old
cold
told gold hold

find kind
mind behind
child children wild
climb

great break
steak
after fast last
past father

class
grass
pass
plant
path
bath
hour

could should would whole clothes

supersonic
Phonic Friends

Reluctant Readers

- ❖ Create a reading routine
- ❖ Dedicate a cosy reading corner
- ❖ Visit the library
- ❖ Choose visually appealing books
- ❖ Hook them into a series of books
- ❖ Watch the film
- ❖ Read using technology
- ❖ Listen to audiobooks - PODCASTS
- ❖ Create a reading competition
- ❖ Pair reading with activities
- ❖ Let them read anything
- ❖ Praise their achievements
- ❖ Follow their passions
- ❖ Find characters your child can relate to

Any Questions?